

Nine Exhibits from Interpretive Exhibits on Display at Natural Products Expo West 2009

Salem, OR
For Immediate Release

Summary:

Interpretive Exhibits, Inc now has designed and fabricated a total of nine exhibits that are used by clients in tradeshow marketing efforts at Natural Products Expo West in Anaheim, California Mar 5 – 9, 2009.

Release:

Earth Mama Angel Baby's newest exhibit makes its debut this weekend, March 5 – 9, 2009 at the Natural Products Expo West show in Anaheim, California. It's a 20' x 15' natural wood exhibit with a custom branded table designed to showcase Earth Mama Angel Baby's unique line of products targeted at new mothers and mothers-to-be.

It also marks the ninth exhibit designed and fabricated by Interpretive Exhibits of Salem, Oregon that is appearing at Expo West, the largest natural products tradeshow in the United States. The show is owned by New Hope Media, who also produce Expo East in Boston in the fall of each year.

The first exhibit designed and fabricated by Interpretive Exhibits to appear at Expo West was in 2003: a 20' x 30' custom exhibit for Salem's Kettle Foods, a leader in the hand-crafted potato chip and roasted nuts food category. The same exhibit has been refurbished several times over the years and will appear again this year.

Other exhibits designed and fabricated appearing at the Natural Products Expo West for 2009 include Springfield Creamery (Nancy's Yogurt) of Eugene, Oregon; Bi-O-Kleen of Vancouver, Washington; Hyland's of Los Angeles; Natracare of the UK; Bob's Red Mill of Milwaukie, Oregon; Mountain Rose Herbs of Eugene, Oregon and gDiapers of Portland, Oregon.
